

Award-winning motivational trainer to speak at next Rotary Club meeting

Mary Cheyne, a professional coach/trainer, will be the featured guest speaker at the next meeting of the Rotary Club of Wellesley on Tuesday, Jan. 26, at the Wellesley Community Center, 219 Washington St. (Route 16), Wellesley Hills.

As always, the public and interested professionals are cordially invited to attend free as a guest of the club at 7:15 p.m. Please RSVP to Fred Garmon at 781-237-0054.

Cheyne, an award-winning speaker, won second place in the 2009 Toastmaster's International World Championship of Public Speaking out of 25,000 contestants from 14 countries.

Cheyne is the founder of Magnetic Podium, an organization that uses the public speaking medium to help individuals uncover the roadblocks that prevent them from reaching their highest potential.

She began her career in software development and later discovered she had a passion for training and motivational speaking. During her 15 plus years of experience, Cheyne has trained corporate clients from around the world, including the United States, Canada, the UK and Australia.

Mary Cheyne

Chinese (Hong Kong) by birth, Australian by transplant and American by choice, Cheyne earned her MBA from the University of Technology in Sydney, Australia.

The Rotary Club of Wellesley is a premier service club, a unit of Rotary International, consisting of 33,000 clubs worldwide, dedicated to humanity and charitable projects internationally.

Interested business and professional men and women are invited to attend program dinner meetings as a guest. Call Anna Maria Costa at 781-237-5000.